CIVIL ACTION NO 2:07CV576-MHT

COMPLAINT

COMES NOW, Carey A. Fortson, Sr., Plaintiff in this case, and for his Complaint against the above Defendants, show the court
as follows:

1.

Plaintiff is an individual resident of the State of Alabama, who is presently incarcerated at the Federal Prison Camp, Maxwell
Air Force Base located in Montgomery, Alabama 36112.

2.

This court has proper jurisdiction because Defendants Bumble

Bee Foods, LLC and Con Agra Foods, LLC sale their product in the Middle District of Alabama. Defendants "BOP" Federal Prison Camp Commissary Staff is located at Maxwell Air Force Base, Middle District of Alabama. Venue is proper because Plaintiff's injuries occurred as a result of Defendants defective product, in Montgomery, Montgomery, Alabama.

3.

On October 24, 2006, the Plaintiff purchased four (4) Kipperd Snacks from the "BOP" Federal Prison Camp Commissary. See: Exhibit "A".

4.

On October 27, 2006, the Plaintiff had eaten most of the Kipperd Snacks out of the can. Two hours or so later, Plaintiff started having severe abdominal pains and burning sensations. Around 4:00 P.M. Count Time, Plaintiff stopped Officer Biggs, and explained to him the pains he was having, because of what he had eaten [Kipperd Snacks]. Officer Biggs told Plaintiff to report to the pill line after count time to see the pharmacist. When the the count was cleared, Plaintiff immediately went to the pill line line and explained to the Physician Assistant, Rodique, what he had eaten and was given some Pink Bismuth Tablets.

5.

On October 28, 2006, Plaintiff had to go back to the pill line a second time for more Pink Bismuth Tablets for his illnesses.

2.

The United States Department of Health Register Nurse, J. Grindle, Grindle, asked the Plaintiff what he had eaten the day before. The Plaintiff told him that he had eaten some Kipperd Snacks. Then Plaintiff explained to the nurse the pains he started having after consuming the Kipperd Snacks [abdominal pains and burning sensations]. Then the nurse gave the Plaintiff some Pink Bismuth Tablets.

6.

On October 29, 2006, the Plaintiff had to go back to the pill line a third time for his illnesses and was given more Pink Bismuth Tablets. The Plaintiff then showed the nurse a portion of the defective product that was inside of the Kipperd Snacks can. See: Exhibit "B" & "B1". The nurse told Plaintiff that he needed to see a doctor on Monday for some medication, because he couldn't give anymore.

7.

On October 29, 2006, the Plaintiff showed the defective product to Mr. Smith, Safety Manager/Commissary Staff, for the Federal Prison Camp. "He said that it was fungus." Mr. Smith asked the Plaintiff if he had anymore Kipperd Snacks, and if so, did I wanted to exchange them for other items from the Commissary. The Plaintiff said yes, and Mr. Smith told Plaintiff to take them back to the Commissary, and he'll have Mr. West to exchange them.

On October 30, 2006, the Plaintiff went to sick call to see a doctor for his illnesses. The Plaintiff explain to the Physician Assistant, McNeil, what he had eaten [Kippered Snacks]. And few hours thereafter I started having abdominal pains and burning sensations. The Physician Assistant, McNeil, examined Plaintiff and prescribed some medications for him and ordered a blood test to determine what the Plaintiff had eaten. See: Exhibit "C" & "C1" & C2".

9.

On October 30, 2006, the Plaintiff took the defective product and the three (3) Kippered Snacks back to the Commissary to Mr. West, Commissary Staff, as directed by Mr. Smith on October 29, 2006. Mr. West offered to give the Plaintiff another Kippered Snacks can for the defective one; but Plaintiff told him no because it made Plaintiff sick. Mr. West told the Plaintiff to bring the three (3) Kippered Snacks back on Plaintiff's Commissary shopping day, and he'll exchange them for other items.

10.

On October 31, 2006, the Plaintiff took the three (3) Kippered Snacks back to the Commissary, and Mr. West substracted them and credited Plaintiff with other items. See: Exhibit "D".

4.

On November 2, 2006, Commissary Staff, Mr. West and the United States Department of Health Register Nurse, Mr. Grindle, both wrote statements for the Plaintiff as to what they had observed inside Kipperd Snacks can. See: "E" & "E1".

12.

On November 21, 2006, Mr. Smith, Safety Manager/Commissary, for the Federal Prison Camp wrote the Plaintiff a statement as to what he had observed inside the Kipperd Snacks can. See: Exhibit "F".

13.

On November 21, 2006, the Plaintiff was given some medication because Bumble Bee Foods, LLC and Con Agra Foods, LLC product had a bacteria in it that caused Plaintiff's intestines to become irritated and, they needed to be clam down. See: Exhibit "G".

14.

On November 30, 2006, Physician Assistant, McNeil, explained to Plaintiff that even though the Kipperd Snacks had passed through, it will show up in the blood test. Then he prescribed Plaintiff some medications, because his blood test had tested positive for H. pylori, see Exhibit "C", a bacteria that was in the defective product from Bumble Bee Foods, LLC and Con Agra Foods, LLC that the Plaintiff had consumed. Exhibit "H" Medications.

15.

On January 24, 2007, another blood test was done to determined whether or not the medications had gotten rid of the bacteria, H. pylori, that the Plaintiff had consumed from Bumble Bee Foods, LLC and Con Agra Foods, LLC defective product. The bacteria, H. pylori, is still active in Plaintiff blood. See: Exhibit "I".

16.

Defendants Bumble Bee Foods, LLC and Con Agra Foods, LLC both were negligence selling a defective product with a bacteria, H. pylori, that caused Plaintiff illnesses. Kipperred Snacks Code number 5X1 172 0 20100 00048 9 best by date 1/1/2008. See: Exhibit "J" & "B" & "B1".

17.

Defendants Bumble Bee Foods, LLC and Con Agra Foods, LLC both were negligence failing to notify the Federal Prison Camp Commissary of their defective product with a bacteria, H. pylori, after they were notified by this Plaintiff before the filing of his Complaint. See: Exhibit "J" & "B" & "B1".

18.

On October 24, 2006, Defendants Bumble Bee Foods, LLC and Con Agra Foods, LLC both were negligence failing to ensure the Plaintiff safety from a defective product under government standards and regulations.

6.

19.

Defendants Federal Prison Camp Commissary Staff Mr. West, Mr. Alimin, Mr. Gordon, and Mr. Smith/Safety Manager are negligence continuing selling Defendants Bumble Bee Foods, LLC and Con Agra Foods, LLC defective product after they had personally observed it on October 29th [Mr. Smith] and 30th [Mr. West and Alimin] of 2006. See: Exhibit "K" & "E" & "F".

20.

Defendants Federal Prison Camp Commissary Staff Mr. West, Mr. Alimin, Mr. Gordon, and Mr. Smith/Safety Manager are negligence for not notifying Defendants Bumble Bee Foods, LLC and Con Agra Foods, LLC on October 30, 2006, concerning their defective product that was distributed to the Federal Prison Camp Commissary for sales.

21.

Defendants Bumble Bee Foods, LLC and Con Agra Foods, LLC defective product caused the Plaintiff to have to take Ranitidine for an six (6) months period before another blood test can be done to determined whether or not the bacteria, H. pylori, is still present in Plaintiff blood. See: Exhibit "L"

7.

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

Pursuant to the Rule of Civil Procedure, Plaintiff hereby makes demand for a jury trial on all issues trially by a jury.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays that he have a Trial by Jury, and that he be awarded a judgment against the Defendants jointly and severally. Dear Mr Fortson Sr.:

Thank you for returning the foreign contaminant you found in our Beach Cliff Kippered Snacks.

When sardines are processed, only the head, gill and tail portions are removed; they are not gutted or deboned. We are however, continually striving to keep the presence of any visceral and /or fish eggs material to a minimum. This practice is in compliance with government standards. Furthermore, we have established very demanding inspection procedures to ensure that acceptable quality standards are maintained and all relevant government regulations adhered to.

Customer satisfaction is important to our company. We appreciate your courtesy in bringing this matter to our attention. We hope you will continue to use and enjoy our products by redeeming the enclosed coupons.
